Magic Realism: Exploring Material Illusions
April 1 - July 17, 2010
Curated by Robin Rice, Philadelphia, PA, this exhibition brings together 19 artists who use materials including wood, clay, and glass to create provocative illusions of other materials. The understanding and respect that material specific artists traditionally accord one another's skills is central to this exhibition. This exhibit is being staged as part of a region wide celebration of clay and the annual NCECA Conference being held in Philadelphia March 31 - April 4, 2010.

allTURNatives: Form + Spirit 2010
Aug. 6 - Oct. 16, 2010

The International Turning Exchange resident artists' travel, and work independently and collaboratively from June until the last week of July in Philadelphia. The allTURNatives exhibit is the grand finale to the 2010 ITE program. This multi-disciplinary exhibit reflects the residents' experiences including objects produced before and during the residency. Residents for 2010 include: Luc De Roo, Belgium

If you can't get to the show, you can order the catalog on our web site or by calling the Center at 215-923-8000. The humorous work and award winning catalogue makes a great holiday gift!

Michael Peterson: Evolution | Revolution
Nov. 5 2010 - Feb. 19, 2011

Organized by the Bellevue Arts Museum, this exhibition will focus on the artist's oeuvre for the past twenty years tracing his unique trajectory- an EVOLUTION from his early works heavily influenced by lathe-turned vessels- to his current, REVOLUTIONARY and fully realized sculptures, free from the influence of the lathe. This exhibition at the Center is the only east coast venue for this tour!

Filling a Gap: Recent Acquisitions of Turned Wood at the Victoria & Albert Museum, London

Until very recently, the Victoria & Albert Museum (V&A), London, England has made little effort to represent the art of wood turning in its collection. Thanks to Glenn Adamson for bringing this news to our attention on the V &A's online journal. Glenn summarizes the recent gifts of wood turnings and sculpture. Read the article below by Glenn Adamson, Head of Graduate Studies and Deputy Head of Research Department, V&A.

Artists included in this recent donation are Mark Lindquist, Liam Flynn, Ron Kent, John Jordan, Bob Stocksdale, David Ellsworth, Todd Hoyer, Ray Key, Stoney Lamar, Michael Peterson, Al Stirt, and Robyn Horn.

Mark S. Sfirri Wins Renwick Distinguished Educator Honoree

Professor Mark Sfirri, world renowned turner and artist, was just named a James Renwick Alliance 2010 Distinguished Educator. This prestigious national honor signifies the honorees for their reputation of excellence and innovation in education, their influence on students in their field, and for their contributions to American education in the craft field. This is a great acknowledgement of his outstanding contribution to the field, which run the gamut from artist innovations, teaching and mentoring aspiring artists of all ages, promoting wood turning at the local, national and international level, and exploring and promoting studio art in popular magazines and academic journals.

The James Renwick Alliance is an independent national nonprofit organization dedicated to advancing scholarship and education on contemporary American craft, to supporting activities directed toward this purpose, and to encouraging connoisseurship and collecting. The Alliance assists the Renwick Gallery of the Smithsonian American Art Museum in adding to its permanent collection of American craft of artistic significance and superior workmanship, supports scholarly research in contemporary American craft, sponsors public educational activities, and pursues other activities in support of the studio craft movement.

Congrats Mark!

John Macnab wins Masterworks Arts Award

Congratulations are due to John Macnab from Halifax, who was awarded the Lieutenant Governor of Nova Scotia's Masterworks Arts Award for one of his large turned pieces from red spruce.

This Award has only one recipient each year and is worth $25,000. The Award is given in recognition of a single work, rather than to an artist, and is open to all artistic disciplines including architecture, fine arts, and performing arts.

Are you ready for the U.S. amended Lacey Act?

On November 17, 2009, U.S. federal agents raided Gibson Guitar Corp.'s Nashville, Tennessee manufacturing facility. The raid was part of an investigation into the illegal trade of a rare wood species allegedly used in some of Gibson's renowned musical instruments.

According to press reports, agents seized wood, guitars, and documents in the first known enforcement action under the recently amended Lacey Act.

Brad Whitman a Pennsylvania wood turner has posted beneficial information on his website with various information a tropical wood species list with scientific and common names and endangerment rankings, links to useful sites like the Forest Products Lab of USDA that has a scientific name finder, and more.
